

Cadaretta is owned by the Middleton family whose portfolio also includes California-based Clayhouse Wines as well as Buried Cane. The winery name is a callout to the family's roots in the timber industry, with Cadaretta the name of the one of the family's schooners in the early 1900's. Brian Rudin serves as winemaker.

CADARETTA, Columbia Valley
2008 Cabernet Sauvignon

GOOD/EXCELLENT

“Medium ruby. A moderately aromatic wine with pure cherry aromas, scorched earth, currant, licorice, and light herbal notes. The palate is medium-plus bodied with plump dark fruit flavors and soft, fine grained tannins. 86% Cabernet Sauvignon, 6% Petit Verdot, 3% Cabernet Franc, and 2% Merlot. Heather Hill, Gamache, StoneTree, and Alder Ridge vineyards. Aged 19 months in French oak (45% new). 14.9% alcohol. 588 cases produced.”

-SEAN SULLIVAN, AUGUST 28, 2012

MIDDLETON
FAMILY WINES

