

CADARETTA, Columbia Valley
2008 Cabernet Sauvignon

92 POINTS

“A full-bodied and fairly intensely-flavored Cabernet, this wine is a delight to drink. It has a firm tannic structure, plenty of fruit (none of which seems over-ripe), and a complex, so-captivating finish. The wines from Cadaretta seem to be getting better and better with each vintage these days. This one is a surefire winner.”
