"...this is a syrah that should be the example for others to follow."

CADARETTA, Columbia Valley
2013 Syrah

94 POINTS

"Smooth and supple on the palate, with a huge burst of blueberry fruit and woodsmoke, this is a syrah that should be the example for others to follow. It shows elegance, with depth and weight, layered complexity and a subtle spice note on the finish that simply says syrah, the real deal."
