91 POINTS

2015 CADARETTA SYRAH
COLUMBIA VALLEY

“Bright, full ruby. A bit lower-toned and more chocolatey than the Windthrow Red in spite of the small percentage of Viognier here. Sweet, plush black raspberry, boysenberry and licorice flavors show a lovely sugar/acid balance and linger well on the firmly tannic finish. Primary and promising, but a bit sweeter and more pliant today than the Windthrow blend, which may surpass it with bottle age. This bottling used to be more salty; now it’s fruitier and better.”
